

Mark Johnston, JD, serves NAMIC as the Midwest State Affairs Director. He advocates on behalf of NAMIC member companies in Illinois, Iowa, Kansas, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, North Dakota, South Dakota, and Wisconsin.

Prior to that, Mark was in the private practice of law and lobbying, worked as an attorney and lobbyist for Blue Cross and Blue Shield of Missouri and clerked for US District Judge Roy Harper as well as Missouri Appellate Judge James Pudlowski.

Mark holds both a law and an undergraduate degree from the University of Missouri. He is also a retired Major in the US Army Reserve having served in command, medical administration and joint services patient evacuation positions in Germany, Korea and stateside.

Mark and his wife Eva, who is a retired school teacher and now works for the Federal Reserve, live in St. Louis. They have two children, Will and Beth.

Mark also has two dogs, which are frequent participants on WIA conference calls when Mark forgets to hit the mute button.

mjohnston@namic.org

314.800.8205