

Steven M. Peters

Division Administrator, Worker's Compensation Division

Before joining the Worker's Compensation Division at DWD, Steve served as staff for over a decade for various members of the State Legislature where he worked on a wide variety of topics including regulatory and insurance issues. Steve staffed Legislators from across Wisconsin, however his longest tenure was with Representative Eric Genrich of Green Bay and his most recent position was with Senator (now DWD Secretary-Designee) Caleb Frostman from Sturgeon Bay. In addition to his State position, Steve also serves on the Dane County Board of Supervisors where he represents District 15 on the far Southwest side of Madison and the Town of Middleton. Steve is a graduate of UW-Madison where he received his Bachelor of Arts in History and Political Science.
