

Joe Roth

Joe Roth joined APCIA's state government relations team in July 2023 and serves as the organization's primary contact for Michigan, Ohio, and Wisconsin. Joe has spent the last 18 years as an advocate for consumer and business interests across numerous industries and jurisdictions. Prior to joining APCIA, Joe represented the Illinois Association of REALTORS as part of a highly visible advocacy team focused on protecting the interests of residential, commercial, and industrial property owners and the real estate industry. An Ohio native, Joe currently resides in Grayslake, Illinois.